WITTMAN TAPPED AS TOP REPUBLICAN ON ARMED SERVICES SUBCOMMITTEE

WASHINGTON, DC – Congressman Rob Wittman has been tapped by Congressman John M. McHugh, Ranking Member of the House Armed Services Committee, for the top Republican position on the Oversight and Investigations Subcommittee. The Subcommittee has oversight of any matter within the jurisdiction of the Armed Services Committee.

“I am grateful to Ranking Member McHugh for appointing me as the Ranking Member of the Oversight and Investigations Subcommittee. Our men and women in uniform are truly the finest in the world, and I look forward to getting to work to support them in this new capacity,” said Wittman.

“I am honored to announce that Rob Wittman will lead our efforts on the Oversight and Investigations Subcommittee. He is a tireless advocate on behalf of the men and women of our military and their families, and will bring the same energy to the position of Ranking Member for the Oversight and Investigations Subcommittee. In his new role, Rob will be responsible for conducting oversight of the policies and activities of the Department of Defense and the military services,” said Ranking Member McHugh.

The Oversight and Investigations Subcommittee has jurisdiction over all matters relating to the Armed Services Committee, including industrial operations and shipyard issues, civilian personnel policy, Naval and Marine Corps acquisition programs, and military construction. In the past, the Subcommittee’s oversight has contributed to legislative action such as the following: providing for concurrent receipt of retirement and disability benefits for veterans, reforming the military retirement system and the military health care system, and assessing operational issues in Iraq and Afghanistan.
